My city is 100 miles from Tirana. It is in South of Albania. In my city there are clothes shops, restaurants, a library, the job is industries in my town, are fruit shops etc. Nurseries, Primary School and a secondary school. There is a university and a college the city. In my town or my village its very nice weather and the food is so fresh. I have lived now in London, but I miss my city very much.

I hope to see my family and friends.
