

Algiers

I come from Algiers, the capital of Algeria. The population of Algeria is around 32 million.

It is in the north of Africa and close to the Mediterranean. The most expensive area is Hydra. This is where I lived. The cheapest town is Babeloued. My school was in Birmouradrais. The only sport in my area is tennis. We also have a supermarket, a town hall, a flower shop, a leather factory and a petrol company [Sonatrach] .
