

Presov

In the picture above is the Cathedral of Pana Maria in the centre of Presov. Presov is a city where around 100,000 people live. The city is located in the eastern part of Slovakia. The distance from the capital city, Bratislava, is 450km. Presov is situated between the Cergov and Slanske Mountains. The region of Presov borders Poland, Hungary and the Ukraine. The regional capital, the city of Presov, is the third largest city in Slovakia. There are more than 12 folklore ensembles and groups. Some of the famous ensembles are Puls, Dubrava, Sarisan and many more. Historically Presov was the most important crossroads for business. The evangelical college, formed in 1667, continued with the tradition of a public humanistic school, where students from abroad have studied. Presov is an important university centre. In Presov there are the textiles, electrical, construction, transport, commerce and tourism industries.

Josef Biros