

I come from Gazi Antep, a big city in the north east of Turkey. The population of Gazi Antep is two million. Gazi Antep is 500 miles from Istanbul. In the north there is the sea. In the east there are mountains. The most expensive areas to live in are Pazarcik. The cheapest area to live in is Narli. I lived in Pazarcik

The main industry in my town is factories

There are religious and state primary schools and Narli secondary school.

I went to Narli School. It is a secondary school.

In my area there are a lot of shops selling food and everything and there are cinemas.

Gazi Antep is the football team in my city.

Mustafa Saskara